

Tanseki with Adam at the orchards of La Galine

This stone collected by Adam, makes him think of the skin of dinosaurs and the color of our earth.
He order me a daiza.

The second stones collected by Adam
It was a lucky day for him :)

He order me a second daiza for this one and asked me if i can see the green of the earth.

This is a virtual daiza to show him what it might look like

The river was so beautiful and the sunset enhanced the colors of autumn/winter

The hunt has not been good for me.

But we returned with the two stones of Adam.

It was a very good moment, as if suspended in time.

The bridge is under renovation
